Looking Back Through the Years

25 YEARS AGO

August 27, 1986

Mrs. Naomi Cummings of Falmouth adds to the historic quilt, as she quilted the square for Pendleton County and will attend the presentation at the state capitol. The huge Kentucky flower basket quilt created by over a thousand Kentuckians, is being given to the state and will be accepted by Governor Martha Layne Collins.

Huff Realty, Inc., proudly announces the recent association of Mike and Debbie Whaley of Pendleton County. Mike is a well known auctioneer, resigned from his position as a buyer and appraiser for the Kentucky Department of Transportation so he could devote his time to the real estate profession along with his wife, Debbie, who is a full time realtor.

Rose Delaney of Falmouth has recently been employed by Frito Lay Inc., Southwest Region, Dallas, Texas, as a staff accountant. Miss Delaney, daughter of Ann Delaney of Falmouth, will serve in the statement control division.

Mrs. Cheryl Baker has officially been appointed chairman of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation's spring fundraising event in Butler. The money raised from events will help fund research to determine the genetic cause and treatments for cystic fibrosis, the nation's number one inherited killer of young people.

A surprise 70th birthday party in honor of Elmo Pribble was held August 23 at the home of Mrs. Ruby Owen at Butler. The table was laden with plenty of good food. Everyone left at a late hour wishing Elmo many more happy birthdays.

Several from the area attended the riverfest highlights of the WEBN Fireworks on the river. The sights were spectacular and both sides of the river always enjoy this wonderful firework display.

Born to the wife of Charles Moore of near Mt. Auburn, a nine and a half pound daughter, named Virginia Elizabeth.

Williamson captures first place in national classic car show

Mark and Angela Williamson of Butler recently attended the four day 2011 National Nova Show in Bowling Green, and captured first place in the 1973-1979 Restored Original Class. In addition, they were honored with the People's Choice Award and were a Silver Class Award winner. Their car is a black Nova equipped with the (9C1) Police Car Package, the only two door (9C1) known to exist. They are the second owners of this very rare Nova. The first runner up and Silver Class award winner was Mark's best friend, David Marquis from Cortland, NY, with a 1974 Nova SS, previously owned by Mark and sold to Dave several years ago. Several family members were in attendance at the banquet to witness this outstanding achievement.

Opinion

Ralph Perrin, President of Falmouth Rotary, 1951-52

By The Rabbi
Mrs. Rabbi

The two highest rated movies in 1951 were "Strangers on a Train," an Alfred Hitchcock thriller, and "The African Queen," starring Humphrey Bogart and Katharine Hepburn. The North Koreans and Chinese invaded South Korea and electricity was generated from atomic energy for the first time. And, Ralph Perrin was elected president of Falmouth Rotary.

Mr. Perrin had served for five years as a staff sergeant in the US Army during World War II. He was a self employed Standard Oil agent for 33 years and many persons knew him as a distributor of home heating oil.

He was a Mason at the Orion Lodge # 22 for 50 years, a member of Morgan Christian Church, and was also a Kentucky Colonel: all indicative of a person who related to the broader community in Pendleton County.

The son of the late Harry and Nellie Makemson Perrin, Ralph was born at Morgan, Pendleton County on June 5, 1914. He was 92 when he died on July 27, 2006 at the St. Luke Hospital, Ft. Thomas.

He had married Jane Hicks on August 7, 1948 and she survived his passing. Other survivors included a son, Steve Perrin of Alexandria; a grandson, Andrew Thomas Perrin of Alexandria; a sister, Ann Garrard of Ft. Thomas; and a brother, Roscoe Perrin of Butler. (Please note that this information was taken from his obituary and persons mentioned above, may or may not live in the identified locations today.)

Funeral services for Ralph Perrin were conducted on Monday, July 31, 2006 at Peoples Funeral Home in Falmouth. He was interred in Riverside Cemetery, Falmouth.

Most of the above information was taken from an obituary of Mr. Perrin. Following are some interesting facts concerning his family. His widow still lives in Falmouth and is alert and manages to keep house although severely injured in a traffic accident. Their son, Steve, "looks after" his mother on a regular basis. Steve's picture was in a recent issue of The Falmouth Outlook because his golf foursome: Dennis Seevers Team, had won second place honors in the Pendleton County Education Foundation tournament.

I was in that same tournament, but did not realize that the son of a former Rotary President was there. Carrying on the tradition of service to our fellow man!

Sharp

Dr. Sharp, his wife, Ann, teachers, administrators, and the board.

"Dr. Sharp is such a humanitarian and he does so much for education," said fellow classmate and longtime friend Carol Klaber, president of the Pendleton County Education Foundation.

Dr. Sharp has won so many awards, many more than we can list here. He is known all over the world for his research and teachings.

For those students at PHS and others in the community that do not know of his background I have included some of his awards from his autobiography and other informational pieces on his work.

The following was taken from his autobiography. A sense of place was and remains an important part of my life. I was born in a rural community in the northern hill country of Kentucky. My earliest memories are those of a child playing around the house on our family farm, located in a bend of the Licking River near McKinnysburg. My mother, Kathrin Colvin Sharp, had grown up in that same house and her family had been part of this community for many generations. My father, Joseph Walter Sharp, grew up nearby within walking distance of the nearest town and county-seat, Falmouth. Both parents came from large families and I was surrounded by grandparents, aunts, uncles, siblings and cousins.

My formal education was entirely in the public schools of Pendleton County: McKinnysburg Elementary, Butler Elementary and High School and Pendleton County High School. Even though my studies never interfered with sports or fun, I managed to gain an appreciation of math and science.

All through my childhood, my parents strongly encouraged me to attend college. With that in mind, they taught me to save my money for college tuition, and, even more important, they allowed me to earn it by raising cattle for the market and growing tobacco.

A world leader of research in molecular biology and biochemistry, Dr. Phillip A. Sharp is Institute Professor at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Much of Dr. Sharp's scientific work has been conducted at MIT's Center for Cancer Research (now the Koch Institute), which he joined in 1974 and directed from 1985 to 1991. He subsequently led the Department of Biology from 1991 to 1999 before assuming the directorship of the McGovern Institute from 2000-2004. His research interests have centered on the molecular biology of gene expression relevant to cancer and the mechanisms of RNA splicing. His landmark achievement was the discovery of RNA splicing in 1977. This work provided one of the first indications of the startling phenomenon of "discontinuous genes" in mammalian cells. The discovery that genes contain nonsense segments that are edited out by cells in the course of utilizing genetic information is important in understanding the genetic causes of cancer and other diseases. This discovery, which fundamentally changed scientists' understanding of the structure of genes, earned Dr. Sharp the 1993 Nobel Prize in Physiology or Medicine. His lab has now turned its attention to understanding how RNA molecules act as switches to turn genes on and off (RNA interference). These newly discovered processes have revolutionized cell biology and could potentially generate a new class of therapeutics.

A group of students attending Dr. Phillip A. Sharp's speech gathered around to have a photo taken with him on August 19, 2011.

Dr. Sharp has authored over 350 scientific papers, received numerous awards and honorary degrees. He has served on many advisory boards for the government, academic institutions, scientific societies, and companies. His awards include the Gardner Foundation International Award, General Motors Research Foundation Alfred P. Sloan, Jr. Prize for Cancer Research, the Albert Lasker Basic Medical Research Award, the National Medal of Science and the inaugural Double Helix Medal from CSHL. He is elected member of the National Academy of Sciences, the Institute of Medicine, the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, and the American Philosophical Society.

A native of Kentucky, Dr. Sharp earned a B.A. degree from Union College, KY in 1966, and a PhD in chemistry from the University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana in 1969. He did his postdoctoral training at the California Institute of Technology, where he studied the molecular biology of plasmids from bacteria in Professor Norman Davidson's laboratory. Prior to joining MIT, he was Senior Scientist at Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory.

In 1978 Dr. Sharp co-founded Biogen (now Biogen Idec) and in 2002 he co-founded Alynlyam Pharmaceuticals, an early-stage therapeutics company.

Family has always been important to Dr. Sharp and still is today. He and his wife, Ann, flew back home to attend his annual family reunion. He and his family attend this every year. His mother, Kathrin resides in Northern Kentucky area as does his sister Joanna Layton and other family.

The area outside of the new auditorium was decorated with a 1991 Pendleton Echo yearbook opened up to two pages of photographs in the math and science classes. The late Mrs. Ava Lou Gulick who taught biology and the late Mrs. Fred Hafer who taught math classes. Fellow classmate Carol Klaber placed a senior photo of Dr. Sharp on the two pages. Also there was a red and black throw for the school near the album. Dr. Sharp was taken on a tour of the school, which has recently been remodeled.

Sponsored by Pendleton County Champions Coalition

The secret to helping children and youth grow into happy, healthy, and responsible adults isn't really a secret at all. Simply make a point to connect with young people: Get to know them, talk to them, understand them, help them, and build relationships with them. As a caring, trusted adult, you'll be better able to provide the building blocks young people need to succeed and reach their goals. Adult role models, guides, and friends are very important to young people. With your help, young people can begin to understand themselves and the world around them. We all know growing up isn't always easy. That's why young people need adults like you in their lives.

Here are the facts

Research from Search Institute identifies 40 Developmental Assets that have a powerful, positive impact on young people. Children and teenagers who have high levels of these assets get involved in fewer risky behaviors and are much more likely to exhibit the positive values, such as leadership, good health, diversity, and success in school. The bad news is most young people don't have enough assets. About 59 percent of young people, ages 11-18, have 20 or fewer Developmental Assets, according to Search Institute surveys. The good news is we can change this because we all have the power to build assets in young people's lives.

Understanding Developmental Assets

The eight asset categories Search Institute has found crucial in helping young people grow up healthy include:

- Support: Young people need to be surrounded by people who love, care for, appreciate, and accept them.
- Empowerment: Young people need to feel valued and valuable. This happens when youth feel safe and respected.
- Boundaries and Expectations: Young people need clear rules, consistent consequences for breaking rules, and encouragement to do their best.
- Constructive Use of Time: Young people need opportunities-outside of school-to learn and develop new skills and interests with other youth and adults.
- Commitment to Learning: Young people need a sense of the lasting importance of learning and a belief in their own abilities.
- Positive Values: Young people need to develop strong guiding values to help them make healthy life choices.
- Social Competencies: Young people need the skills to interact effectively with others, to make difficult decisions, and to cope with new situations.
- Positive Identity: Young people need to believe in their own self-worth and to feel they have control over the things that happen to them.

Each of these categories involves several specific assets that help young people grow up healthy.

Tips for building assets

In your home and family: Post a list of the 40 Developmental Assets on your refrigerator door. Each day, do at least one thing to build assets for each family member.

In your neighborhood and community: Learn the names of the young people who live around you. Find out what interests them, and ask them about those interests.

In your school or youth program: Plan asset-building activities as part of the curriculum or program. For example, engage young people in service-learning projects, social skills training, or reading for pleasure.

Want to know more about the 40 Developmental Assets and ideas for helping young people build them?

Join us for a Community dinner and training, "All Kids Are Our Kids," on Wednesday, September 14th at 6:30 PM at the Pendleton County Extension Service. A dinner will be provided so an RSVP is needed. Please RSVP by calling 654-3395 by September 9th.

Council

trators were not submitting monthly reports as required. Mayor Hart said that he would send the department heads a letter requesting that they attend the next council meeting in September to explain the matter.

• Approved a resolution that authorizes Mayor Hart to sign documents regarding the relocation of the Falmouth/Shoemakertown Bridge.

• Passed resolutions which approved the reappointments of Kenny Bishop and Kenni King to the recreation board.

• Defeated a motion to euthanize stray cats caught inside the city limits of Falmouth.

• Passed a motion that authorized the inspection and bidding out the painting of the city water tower located south of town.

• Denied a request from citizen, Barry Ammerman, to create an ordinance amendment that would allow the late payment of utility bills when the deadline falls on weekends and city hall is not open.

• Councilman Stan Love and Councilman Ernie Richie were chosen to research the creation of a Falmouth snow emergency plan ordinance.

• Denied a request to reduce garbage collection rates for non-profit organizations.

• Directed City Attorney, Henry Watson III (Skip), to determine what process the city should take to condemn the Capon Building (Pizza Factory) located on Shelby Street in downtown Falmouth.

Rarriek grows horseshoe cucumber

Brenda Rarriek of Falmouth grew this horseshoe shaped cucumber in a rotten stump. She just threw a few cucumber seeds into an old stump like she has in the past. She added a little Miracle Grow and dirt, and the cucumber came out shaped like a horseshoe.

A farm's hidden asset: woodlands

Maximizing every bit of profit from a farm is one of the keys to success. One thing that may not be at the top Kentucky landowners' minds is their farm's woodlands, but woodlands should be thought about and managed just like crops, fields, gardens or other agricultural endeavors. Farmers can benefit by understanding the industry and learning basic forestry concepts, such as how to control light and density, manage pests and steward a forest to make it healthier and sustainable. There also can be important tax benefits for timber owners, and secondary markets may be available for nontimber products such as hunting leases, ginseng, shiitake mushrooms and fence posts.

It may be a surprise to learn that timber, the majority of it privately grown and processed, is one of the largest agriculture and natural resource industries in Kentucky. The statistics are impressive: Kentucky ranks as one of the top three hardwood producing states in the United States. (Pennsylvania and Tennessee usually account for the other top spots in the hardwood timber business.) Twelve million acres, almost half of Kentucky's land base, are forested. According to the U.S. Forest Service, the total economic impact of Kentucky's forests and related industries contributes more than $8 billion each year to the state's economy, and it employs more than 30,000 people. Most of Kentucky's forests consist of hardwoods, with oaks, yellow poplar, hickories, ash, cherry and walnut contributing to the economic value of the forest industry. Woodlands also are valuable for providing habitat to a wealth of wildlife, from black bears to bobcats. These woodlands also serve as a backdrop for much of the recreational and tourist activities in the state. Another important contribution of woodlands, but harder to put a dollar figure on, are the ecosystem services such as water and air filtration, carbon sequestration and flood control they provide.

More than 11 million of Kentucky's 12 million forested acres are classified as timberland, meaning they are capable of growing commercial timber at a rate of 115 board feet of wood volume per acre per year. (A board foot is 12 inches by 12 inches by 1 inch). Logging in Kentucky is renewable, as tree growth in the state exceeds annual timber removal. The industry also ensures that commercial operations have a Master Logger graduate on-site and follow best management practices for protecting water quality at harvest sites. Sawmills and other industries produce much less waste than in the past, utilizing all but 5 percent of wood residue, down from 35 percent in the 1970s. Advances in machinery and utilization of sawdust and bark residue have fueled this significant reduction in waste. Now, mulch, fuel, composite wood products, charcoal and animal bedding are made from leftover wood, reducing the industry's impact on the environment.

4-H partners for a fit Kentucky

Obesity is an epidemic in Kentucky, according to a recent report by the Kentucky Department of Public Health. Startling statistics peppered the findings. More than two-thirds of Kentucky adults are overweight or obese. Childhood obesity rates in the state have tripled since 1980. It is projected that a third of the babies born in Kentucky will develop diabetes in their lifetimes.

Things can change, and a partnership plans to stem the obesity tide through the promotion of physical activity and proper nutrition. The Partnership for a Fit Kentucky provides support to the Obesity Prevention Grant the Kentucky Department of Public Health received from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. The partnership includes a number of concerned state agencies and departments, including the University of Kentucky Cooperative Extension Service and Kentucky 4-H.

Some of the partnership's goals are to encourage people to eat more vegetables and fruits, impress on new mothers the importance of breastfeeding their babies, increase physical activity among all age groups, reduce TV viewing time, increase parental involvement and address other dietary concerns. Weight-related illnesses like diabetes and heart disease are on the rise. If you are concerned about your child not getting enough exercise, 4-H has many opportunities that can get and keep them moving.

4-H offers programs for dog lovers, horse lovers, farming, after school fitness clubs and cooking clubs, to name a few. Not only will your children get exercise but they will learn confidence, team work, new skills and how to lead a healthier lifestyle.

Blanket Creek Baptist

Dead men don't sneeze. 16% don't read Bible, 32% once a week, and 31% really read their Bible and see a difference in their lives.

We are talking about a boy who died. Elisha is the one who layed on the boy and gave him his portions of Salvation. Then the boy rose and sneezed seven times. So you see it only takes a touch of Jesus to accept the Lord. Remember Jesus also raised Lazarus with just a command of saying, "come forth Lazarus," John 11:14.

Good to see Chrissy's mother Lois Secrest, at church Sunday. Special by Leck Trent was "Don't Have to Worry Anymore." Remember lost loved ones. Keep the ones on our prayer list on your prayers. Don't have a church home come join us for Sunday school at 9:45 a.m. and worship services at 10:45 a.m.

Butler Christian

Bro. Denny's sermon title August 14, "Great is Your Faith." Scripture Matthew 15:21-28, "The Canaanite Woman's Faith." Elder and deacons: Ray Trout, Elsie Ice, Herman Courtney. Liturgist Austin Magee. Thank you to Ben Russell for the beautiful special music singing "Please let me sing in the choir," organist Mary Kathryn Hardy, pianist Sandy Russell, acolyte Courtney Baird, Erin Kirby.

BCC to visit the Galilean Home, August 27. Join us Sunday mornings. Sunday school at 10 a.m., worship at 11 a.m. Nursery is available.

Bulter United Methodist

We were happy to have Amanda Bowen with us to share about her work in the Honduras schools and mission field. She gave a brief slide presentation after church services. David needs to know the Visioning Teams availability so that some meetings can be scheduled.

Now that school is back in session and vacationing is slowing, we will be focusing on Sunday school and bible study. Forms were given out to gauge interest in these. Dave did reserve the right to guilt trip you, however!

The ladies and mens groups will be meeting this week. Courtney is planning a September trip to Tennessee, so ladies get your plans made now.

Those on the prayer list that are in urgent need of our prayerful support are, Brianna Wood, Courtney, Phillip Griffith, Nancy and Mark's friend, Jeff Howard, Barb's friend's father, Gary Hardy, Anna, Mike Chiles, Frank, Juanita Fields, and all the school children. Hope to see you at God's house on Sunday.

Falmouth Baptist

Bro. Cohen's message challenged us to think about why we don't share with others about what Christ has to offer them or about the hunter who is lurking (Satan). Sometimes it is just apathy or complacency. It might be because we don't know the gospel well enough. Perhaps we don't share because we aren't living in a right relationship with Christ ourselves.

The world around us is in dire need of a Savior. Matthew 28:18 commands, "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit." We all need to let go and let God work through us. Beginning today, let us each commit to do what we can to bring others to Christ!

We rejoiced during the time of decision as Rebecca Best made a public profession of her faith in Jesus Christ and requested believer's baptism.

First Baptist

Adarin Williams blessed us with special music this beautiful Sunday morning. Bro. Harry's message was taken from 1 Peter. An evangelist is anyone who shares the good news of Jesus Christ. Christ is Lord and master of our lives. Our lives need to revolve around Jesus. If others see Jesus in your daily life, you will have them come to you seeking the reason for your peace and happiness. You can then witness to them on how being a Christian has changed your life.

Praise God for answered prayers this week. Pray for the lost, the sick and those who have lost loved ones. Pray for Amanda Bruin as she leaves for Honduras to teach at Destino Del Rino school there.

"The best sermons are lived, not preached."

Glenwood Baptist

What a glorious day this past Sunday was. Two young people were added to the church by following the Lord Jesus in the waters of baptism. So what is baptism anyway? Is it important?

Baptism comes from the Greek word "baptizmo" and means to "dip under, immerse, submerge." It had reference to dyeing a piece of cloth. What is interesting is that before the cloth is dyed a certain color first it had to be bleached, made pure. Then, and only then, could the cloth be dyed and identified with a certain color.

The same is true for the baptism of person. First there must be purification: the regeneration of that person's soul by the Holy Spirit, the believing of that person on Jesus as their savior, putting their full trust and confidence in Him and Him alone. Second comes identification: the baptizing of a believer in water upon their profession of faith into a local church.

Harvest Community

Be assured that, when you have a life in Christ, you have a reserve of power and love to call on each day, for help to meet every challenge or trial. You can pray for God's power and love as you need it (Romans 5:8-9).

Add those that are on our prayer list to your daily prayer requests: Aaron Crozier, Libby Martin, Zack Thomas, Elwood Orr, Lee Roy Faulkner, Brenda Smith, Louis Meadows, Brianna Wood, Sandy Utz, Dianna Monroe, Gary Hardy, Jay Perkins, Bill Spence, Bro. Harry Crozier, Wanda Gosney, Nellie Smith, and Icie Lucas.

Come be our guests at 111 E. Shelby Street, Sunday mornings at 9:30 a.m. for Bible study (classes for everyone), morning worship at 10:30 a.m., evening worship at 6 p.m., and Wednesday evening 6 p.m.

Remember, school is open, drive safely. Blessings for a wonderful week.

Morgan Christian

We had a service of music on August 14. Ruth and Andy from Flour Creek sang "The Lighthouse" and "My Mama's Side." The Second 12 Mile Baptist Church brought their children's bell choir who performed "Will the Circle be Unbroken," "This Little Light of Mine," and "In the Garden."

We had a terrific time at the Godman Pig Roast in the afternoon. The food, the games, the music were all wonderful. On September 11 we will be having a youth/children's service and dedication of the Nancy Harville Memorial Playground. If you would like to purchase a stepping stone Dawn Wood is collecting $10 per stone. The stones will be decorated by kids in our childrens Sunday school class. Our prayers continue to go out to Brianna Wood.

Mt. Gilead

As I write this, the annual meeting is still six days away. Next week I'll write about the results of our annual worship service. Now I mention some of my memories of my involvement in this church.

To begin, don't remember the year, but Mr. Harper was worried he could not get anyone to mow, the meeting was only a few days away, "Can I help," was my foolish question. I spent most of a week trying to get the lawn in shape. Finally finished and started a long standing job of keeping the grass cut. Now we have riding mowers. Ray Aulick is the majory mower, thanks Ray.

We begin talking about starting services earlier in the year and run into the fall. Problem, no heat. "We will take care of that," said a friend from Harry's church. We have beautiful electric furnaces. It seems to me that God is always coming forth and his people show up. What an awesome God. His interest in an old church, 151 years old, small congregation and yet it is beckoning as it stands alone on the hill.

Thanks to all who have helped to maintain the church through the years. It just would not have been done without God's interest.

Mt. Moriah

Everyone is welcome to attend our "100 years of Faith and Moving Forward" on Sunday, August 28. All friends, members, past members and descendants of Mt. Moriah are invited to join us in this very special day in the life of the church. Activities begin at 10:45 a.m. Rev. Bill Horten, former minister, will speak.

A potluck meal will follow the morning service. A 2 p.m. celebration will follow including comments by former ministers, remembrances shared by church members and guests, tributes to past members and musical selections. Hope to see you there.

New Hope Baptist

It is interesting to see the value that we put on certain objects. Action Comic 1 (the first Superman comic book) sold last year for 1.5 million dollars. In 2005, Babe Ruth's rookie card sold for $243,000. Neither of these objects can save a life, keep one warm at night, give shelter, or protect someone from danger. Both have to be well protected. If they are even slightly damaged, their value drops.

How much does God value you? First, He gave you life. He even made you in His image. Second, He gave you a beautiful world to live in. Third, He gave you His Son's blood on the cross to save you from your sins. This gift allows you to live forever in heaven. You have great value in His sight. Honor Him by giving Him your love and respect.

New Zion Baptist

Come join us in worship and fellowship on Sundays at 10 a.m. for Sunday school, 11 a.m. morning worship and evening services at 6:30 p.m.

On Sunday August 14 we held our annual Senior Appreciation Celebration. It was a wonderful time of Christian fellowship, music and food. The Lord has indeed blessed our Church with good cooks and fine voices! Thanks to everyone for helping to making it such a wonderful evening! Let us try to appreciate our seniors all year long and give them the respect they deserve (1 Timothy 5:1; 1 Peter 5:5).

Upcoming opportunities: August 21 the Associational Picnic will be held at Kincaid State Park at 5 p.m.; CrossFire Crew will be performing that same evening at Corinth Full Gospel at 6:30 p.m.; revival will begin on September 9 and run through September 11.

Please remember in prayer Breanna Woods, David Lucas, Ruby Stanfield, Diana Monroe, Larry Lee, Viola Downard and all of our military men and women.

Roanoke Christian

The background Scripture for Bro. Don's message Sunday was taken from Genesis 13. Friendship is a wonderful thing, but just as Abram and Lot's friendship was strained by material things we sometimes let material things strain our friendship, if it be with our fellow man or our relationship with the Lord. Does our desire to obtain material things keep us from attending Church, helping out a friend or just doing the right thing? Remember our earthly treasures we will leave behind, but our relationship to the Lord will last forever.

The ladies Bible study meets each Wednesday at 6 p.m. You are welcome to join. Please remember those who are ill and those who are experiencing a difficult time in their life in your prayers and thoughts. You are welcome to join us each Sunday for worship services at 11 a.m. and Sunday school at 10 a.m.

Short Creek Baptist

Youth meetings Sundays at 5 p.m. Children's Bible study Wednesdays at 7 p.m.

Pastor Brad Whiteford and his family just celebrated their fifth anniversary at our church. God has blessed us with a caring pastor that preaches the Word to reach the lost and we are thankful they are part of our church family.

Luke 19:10 "For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost." Recently in the news, we hear about how poorly the stock market is doing and the debt problems this country is facing. Most people are trying to save for retirement through their 401K or maybe other investments, even in gold. The bible tells us in Matthew 6:20 to lay our treasures up in Heaven, but most importantly is where are you going to spend eternity?

That decision needs to be made now. Don't put off this decision, because we are not guaranteed our next breathe. You may never see retirement here on earth. Accepting Christ is the most important decision you will ever make and He will never leave you or forsake you. It's up to you to decide. Heaven or Hell?

Southside

It's bad enough to demean and deceive ourselves. What makes it worse is that we thereby destroy ourselves. This destruction could not possibly be more terrible. The Bible calls it "death" but it is not a death marked by tombstones. It is eternal death. That eternal destruction of your soul begins with a false image of yourself and with deceiving yourself about your sins. Ultimately it destroys your soul, but meanwhile it ruins your present life.

You must stop this self-destruction. The blessings of peace, profit, passion and praise are too precious to pervert or destroy and lose forever. Today we hear much about the problems of divorce, drugs, disease, etc. These things, when they are the victim's own fault, have an underlying cause, self-dishonesty. Don't demean, deceive and destroy yourself any longer. Let Jesus into your heart. He will make you honest with yourself and whole again.

Trinity

What a beautiful day God has given us. We were blessed to have with us Bro. Gene Livingood leading worship during the pastor's absence this week. Our message came from the book of Genesis 5:21-24. Enoch walked with God. We were created by God to walk and talk with God. We will not experience true complete happiness until we do.

Marc taught us in the children's sermon that Jesus always has His eyes on us when we are good or bad. He never leaves us nor forsakes us. Remember Phil Cross Concert and Choir Revival Sunday, September 11. Keep that in your prayers along with each other.

Turner Ridge Baptist

Sunday, August 14, Bro. Dale's message was "Shoes of the Preparation of the Gospel of Peace" with Scripture from Ephesians 6:13-15. Hannah Miller read Scripture from Romans 10:14-15.

We are still in our study about truth about grace in Galatians for our evening worship. Hannah Craig was baptized Sunday morning. The choir special was "The Old Landmark." Church softball games are still going on. Remember all shut-ins for this week.

Uncle Dale gave the children's message on "Good News Shoes" asking them about wearing different kinds of shoes. Shoes of the gospel is good news about Jesus and Jesus loves us. The choir sang "O How He Loves You and Me."

Christian sympathy is extended to families of Cy Howard, Jennifer Zimmer, Brandy Haggard, and Louis Jones. New friends were added this week. Please remember prayers and concerns for everyone. No church home? Come join us.

It is 6:30 a.m. on August 11. I am sitting beside daughter Verena's bed at the children's hospital. She had surgery on her foot yesterday and was admitted to the hospital. Doctors were just in here to see her but are not sure if she will be able to go home today. She had some pain through the night but is now taking some pain medicine and sleeping really well.

Since the surgery the feeling is back in her right leg and foot. It had been numb from her knee on down since the end of May. We are very excited to see that her feeling is back since the surgery. She'll have to wear a hard cast for four to six weeks. The cast comes up to her knee.. At night time to go to bed she has to wear a brace on her whole leg to keep it straight..We are also so thankful that her post-concussions have not reoccurred for two and a half months. We pray they are gone for good..Hopefully she is now on the road to permanent good health.

Daughters Elizabeth and Susan are done de-tasseling corn for this year. I am glad they are finished so that they can be home with the rest of the children while my husband Joe goes to work. Joe did take the day off from the factory yesterday to be up here at the hospital while Verena had her surgery. Our good friend Ruth took time out of her schedule to bring us here. She stayed here with us all day. We sure appreciate what she does to help us out.

This is now Saturday afternoon August 13. Verena ended up having to stay at the hospital until last night. We didn't arrive home until 8 p.m. I was really glad to see all the children again. Jacob, Emma, and family brought in our supper. It was nice not to have to fix a meal after arriving home.

I think daughter Elizabeth was glad for the break also. Her and Susan worked hard but did a good job of fixing the meals and taking care of their younger siblings while we were away. On Friday morning Elizabeth called us at the hospital at 5 a.m.. to tell us all our horses were out on the road.. They had some excitement but with the help of others they soon had them back in the field. The horses must have pushed open a gate that was left unlatched.

Elizabeth and Susan took the five youngest children to the dentist for their cleaning on Friday. They took our horse Diamond and the buggy to the dentist office in town. I was glad when they called the hospital to let us know they were all home safe and sound. While we were out at the hospital we received the sad, shocking news of the death of a 38-year-old single male in our community. He was killed instantly in a farm accident while making hay. Life is so uncertain. Only God knows when our time here on earth is done.

Joe and the boys did a lot of weeding in the garden. Makes it look a lot better. Hopefully we can get caught up with the garden now. It looks like canning will be in full swing for the next couple of weeks. Tomatoes, hot peppers, red beets, and more green beans are all ready to be canned. I switched my order for peaches until next week when I found out Verena would have to stay at the hospital after surgery. We are still getting quite a few zucchinis from the garden so I will share my zucchini brownies recipe.

ZUCCHINI BROWNIES

4 eggs
1 1/2 cup oil
2 cups white sugar
2 cups flour
2 teaspoons baking soda
2 teaspoons cinnamon
1 teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons cocoa
1 teaspoon vanilla
3 cups shredded and peeled zucchini
1 cup nuts

Preheat oven to 350. In a large mixing bowl, beat together eggs, oil, and sugar. In a separate medium mixing bowl, sift together flour, soda, cinnamon, salt, and cocoa.. Add to egg, oil, and sugar mixture. Then add vanilla, zucchini and nuts. Mix all together and spread onto a greased 10 X 15 jelly roll pan. Bake at 350 for 30 minutes. Can be frosted but are also really good just plain.

Debbie's Daycare visits Kenton Fire Department

Debbie's Daycare of DeMossville was pleased to have special guests from the Kenton Fire District as a part of their annual end of summer ice cream social. Chief Jim Shoemaker and EMT's Chris Shoemaker and Michael Bullock shared their fire truck and ambulance with the children and their families. Thanks from our daycare children: A.J., Eme, Kamden, Alayna, Malia and Spencer. Debbie's Daycare is a certified in home daycare ran by Debbie Shoemaker. The daycare has a Three Star Rating through the Kentucky STARS for Kids Now program.

Woodmen fish fry enjoyed by all

Lodge 611 members, their families and guests enjoyed the annual Woodmen of the World fish fry held Saturday evening, August 13 at the local lodge building on Highway 330 west of Falmouth.

Lodge president Thelma Souder gave a very warm welcome to the evenings event and ended with leading the pledge to the flag.

Elton Souder's invocation reminded us of the special God given privileges friendship, health and safety granted us in today's busy world.

Something of this magnitude needs a lot of planning and purchasing of needed items. This year Charlotte and Charley Whaley took the responsibility very seriously.

On the lodge back lawn, as in many previous years, fish was rolled in meal and fried to perfection in lard, using the same old iron kettles over wood fire by local members Larry Fields, Jeff and Mike Simpson, and David and Jerry Fields.

The delicious dinner of fish, baked beans, cole slaw, sliced tomatoes, chips, and tea or lemonade was served by Margaret Haley, Bonnie Florence, Janice Fields, Loretta Simpson, Shirley Galloway, Charlotte Whaley, David Wills, Mildred Showalter, and Bradley Wills.

Field Representative David Monroe registered approximately 140 members, their families and friends to enjoy the yearly event.

Fifty year members present and receiving recognition were Larry Omer Fields, K.J. McClanahan, and Evelyn Ruby Wyatt.

Seven members came forward to receive 25 year membership pins.

Monroe also presented a number of monetary gifts from Lodge 611. Names were drawn from registration by little three-year-old Collie Seedle, who received a Woodmen fleece blanket for her help.

Special out of town guests were Mrs. Wilma Jean Smith, jurisdictional secretary and granddaughter Mrs. Vicki Jones, jurisdictional past-president and her family, jurisdictional vice president Mr. Donald G. Doyle and Melba, national delegate Mr. Charles Doyle, Shelby, and Jenny Doyle from Cynthiana, East Kentucky fraternal coordinator, Amanda Neely, and Brad McNew.

NATE GOSNEY AND KENNADI MAYER

Kentucky State Fair winners

By Lisa Mayer

As our names were called just one year ago, we were more excited than words can express. This year has been nothing short of amazing for us. We have had tremendous fun and experienced wonderful memories. It was an honor representing Pendleton County at state and a true blessing being crowned 2010 Little Miss and Mister Kentucky County Fair.

We will forever cherish the memories and experiences of, visiting our state capitol, being introduced on the House of Representatives and Senate floors, personally meeting Katie Stine and Royce Adams. We also go to take part in Miss Pre-Teen, Teen and Miss Kentucky, Miss Hope for a Cure, The Homemakers Banquet, the 4th of July parade and also being featured in the Kentucky Living Magazine.

We'd like to specially thank Judge Bertram for the proclamation that September 28 will always be known as Nate and Kennadi day in Pendleton County.

As our reign comes to an end, we'd like to extend our appreciation to our families and friends for all your support. A special thank you to The Falmouth Outlook for doing such a tremendous job on covering our wins! And also to Lisa Johnting for making "everything" happen. You made us feel like royalty and we will never forget that. To Toria Robinson your 2010 Miss Pendleton County it was an honor being escorted by you at the state competition.

This may be the end of our reign, but this is only the beginning of our friendship! Again, we thank you all for indulging our lives with new found experiences and irreplaceable memories.

Your 2010 Little Miss and Mister Kentucky State Fair Nate Gosney and Kennadi Mayer.

Jacob voted 2011 baseball all-star

Brent Jacob of Butler was informed on July 31 that he had been voted to the all-star game by the coaches of the South West Ohio Baseball League. The South West Ohio League is the premier baseball league of the Cincinnati area of which Brent has played in for four years. In 2008 and 2009 he played for the Timberwolves coached by Tom Daria based in Villa Hills, Kentucky. In 2010 he played for the Kentucky Colonels based in Erlanger and in 2011 the Cincinnati Athletics coached by Calvin Holloway based in Batavia, Ohio.

Brent missed half of the summer season because he was selected to attend the 2011 Kentucky Governor Scholar and Centre College for five weeks. When he returned home he got the call that he was a 2011 baseball all-star.

With only a month of play his statistics held up to get him the well deserved recognition. In 29 innings pitched for the A's Brent had 19 K's, three walks, and E.R.A. of 2.66. In one game he carried a no hitter through six innings. He batted .345 and was listed as a pitcher and outfielder for the South team in the all-star game played on August 9 at the University of Cincinnati's Marge Schott Stadium. Brent played three innings in right field and was designated the closer for the South, but unfortunately the game ended in an 11-11 tie with lightning stopping play for the evening. Brent made a throw to second and a perfect throw to third from right field to showcase his arm. His teammate Tyler Carver pitched one inning of no hit baseball.

Brent has started varsity for the Pendleton County Wildcats since eighth grade and looks forward to his upcoming senior season. Brent is the son of Ronnie and Beth Jacob, grandson of Ruth Jacob and the late Harold Jacob and the late Roy and Millie Elam, all of Butler.

Wildcats drop four to five to open

Goalie Jacob Farwell defends for the PCHS varsity soccer team. He had ten saves against Rowan County on Thursday and twenty saves against Campbell on Monday.

By: Sam McClanahan
Reporter

The Pendleton County Wildcats soccer team opened regular season play last week with a brutal five-game stretch that saw the club drop four contests and tie one opponent.

The week began last Monday when the 'Cats traveled north to face Campbell County. Both teams played equally through the first half, and the 'Cats offense did an admirable job in getting quality shot attempts. PC would eventually strike when senior JT Smallwood took a pass from junior Aven Harper and netted his first career varsity goal. Unfortunately, despite collectively taking 16 shot attempts, the 'Cats would not score again as they dropped the season opener 2-1. Junior goalkeeper Jacob Farwell recorded 20 saves.

The 'Cats hoped to rebound on Thursday night when they hosted Rowan County. PC came out the gate aggressively on offense, getting numerous shot attempts but were unable to convert any scores. Despite dominating possession and dictating the pace of the first half, including getting off 17 shots, the game remained scoreless at halftime. Rowan County would break through in the final 12 minutes, taking a 1-0 lead that would end up being the final score. The Wildcats offensive woes translated to 26 total missed shots, Rowan County took just 11.

"This game was very frustrating to watch," said head coach Lisa Feltner. "We have got to execute our shot opportunities. There's no excuse in not scoring any goals when you have give yourself that many chances."

On Friday the Wildcats took part in the Scott Christian Memorial Invitational, held at Scott High. PC squared off against Boone County and were handled by a final score of 5-1. The lone Wildcat goal was scored by Aven Harper. "We were outmatched in this game and we're just not playing with any confidence," commented Feltner. "After the game I told our guys that we have to play loose and have more fun. We are pressing entirely too much, and it's throwing us completely out of our game."

The 'Cats faced off against Brossart on Saturday afternoon and were finally able to get its offense in rhythm. The Wildcats and Mustangs played to a 6-6 draw. Aven Harper led the way scoring four times, while chipping in with a pair of assists. Ryan Feltner, Austin Hatton, and Jared Cox each added goals for the 'Cats, who took a quick 3-0 lead in the games first 12 minutes before allowing Brossart to pull even.

"I made some lineup adjustments that paid off in this game. I moved Ryan and Aven back together as forwards to help kickstart our offense, and it worked," said Feltner. "We played much better in this game, we dropped a pre-season game to Brossart at Soccerama, and I saw some improvement tonight."

The Wildcats concluded its busy week Saturday evening against Scott High. The Eagles dominated PC from the beginning of the game and went on to win in convincing fashion, 6-0. Any momentum the 'Cats offense had found earlier in the afternoon was quickly lost.

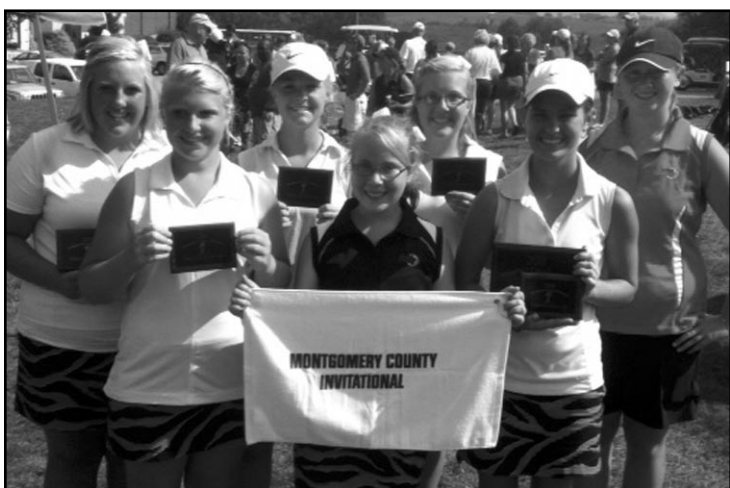

This week, the Wildcats will play three games. Tonight, PC will host Dixie Heights at 7 p.m. On Thursday evening, the team travels to face Conner at 7:30 p.m., and on Saturday night the 'Cats host Boone County at 7:30 p.m.

Ladycats golf starts strong

Ladycats JV Sweeps Notre Dame

Notre Dame is a powerhouse in NKY golf, winning most regional titles and finishing among the team leaders at the KHSAA state tournament.

On Wednesday, they made the trip to Pendleton Country Club only to return with two losses as the JV Ladycats beat Notre Dame's JV and freshmen team in a tri-match. The JV Cats shot a team 207 while Notre Dame's JV team shot 209 and their freshmen team went 234.

Ariel Ramsey led the Ladycats with the low score but in an example of team depth, Holley Hart was one shot behind and MacKenzie Moore and Morgan Cobb tied two strokes behind Holley. That bunching led the Cats to the victory. Whitney Manor and Shelby Johnson also played in the match and improved their scores from their first match.

The sweep raised the JV Cats record to 2-1 for the season. Their opening match was a 191-197 loss to Villa Madonna. Ariel posted the 3rd low score of the day with Holley one stroke behind.

After the busy start for the Varsity Ladycats, they had a slower week with only an appearance in the Montgomery County Invitational tournament on Saturday.

While the Ladycats were spending time working on their game, how good the start of their season has been came into focus. Out of the eight tournaments they played in, they recorded the three lowest team scores in school history. Of the remaining five tournaments, their team scores were five of the six lowest in school history and all eight are among the 11 lowest team scores in Ladycat history.

On Saturday, they posted a 341 which is the lowest in team history and was good for second place out of the 19-team field. It is the third time they have set the low team score record this season. They have two second place finishes and two third place finishes this season.

Kristen Smith shot a 3-over, 74, to lead the Cats and place 2nd out of 104 golfers. Maggie Miles had a strong finish and shot an 85 to finish in the top 15. Haley Hart and Brianna Aulick contributed the two remaining scores.

The Cats hosted Mason County and Bourbon County last night but results were not available at press time. Wednesday, they host Nicholas County and Campbell County while the JV travels to Eagle Creek to play Grant County. Saturday, JV travels to Richmond to play in the Madison County JV Invitational.

Wildcats lose season opener

By Bruce Reller, Jr.
Reporter

The Pendleton County High School Wildcats lost their home and season opener to Carroll County 27-14 last Friday, August 19.

"I felt our running game was a positive," Wildcat head coach Terry Brown said. "We just need to work a little harder defensively."

The Wildcats grabbed an early lead in the first quarter. However, Carroll County answered with a few scores and took control most of the game. Pendleton County did make it interesting at the end and had a chance in the fourth quarter, but they fell a little bit short.

"We need to take care of the ball. It is tough to beat anyone with 4 turnovers," Brown said. "I was proud of the way we fought back and had a game winning drive opportunity with five minutes left."

Senior quarterback Sam Harrison was 10 for 24 passing in the game for 87 yards and 2 interceptions. He also rushed for 75 yards and 2 touchdowns.

Senior halfback Travis Daugherty rushed for 110 yards for PC. Daugherty was named the Rumpke Player of the Week. Also, wide receiver Austin Pyles had four receptions for 30 yards, and Tyler Harrison had three receptions for 22 yards. Pyles had two kick returns for 38 yards too.

The Wildcats next play a home game against Ludlow this Friday at 7 p.m. "We need a good week of work to get ready for a solid Ludlow team," Brown said. Come out and support your Cats!

Keaton Belcher returns to PCHS

By Bruce Reller, Jr., Reporter

Keaton Belcher has returned to Pendleton County High School. He will serve as an assistant to Assistant Principal/Athletic Director Gary Dearborn during the fall semester.

Belcher, a 2005 PCHS graduate, is completing his masters degree in Sports Administration through Eastern Kentucky University. He must complete 300 hours in athletic administration this semester.

"My main goal is to learn as much as possible about athletic administration and the correct way to run a high school athletic department," Belcher said.

Belcher will be assisting Dearborn in the day to day operation of the athletic department during the fall sports season. Belcher will graduate in December after the internship is complete.

"We are looking forward to having Keaton work with our coaches, fans, and student athletes," Dearborn said. "He will be a positive influence to all people that he comes in contact with this semester."

Belcher graduated from Belmont University in 2010 and recently spent the 2010-2011 academic year as a graduate assistant in men's basketball at EKU. He is excited about coming back home for awhile.

"It is a good feeling. I have a lot of respect for our community and the people of Pendleton County," Belcher explained. "I'm excited about getting the opportunity to work in the Athletic Department."

Ridell and Rherring voted MVP

PCHS girls volleyball had a busy week. Our JV girls traveled to Grant County on Saturday for an all day tournament where they played nine matches against Madison Central, Owen County and Williamstown, who they beat 21-19. Two of our players, Izzy Ridell and Sam Rherring, were voted MVP for the tournament. On August 9, the ladycats hosted Owen County. Our freshmen girls won in two games. JV girls gave a valiant effort but lost to the Owen County JV team. The varsity team gave an impressive showing and won against Owen County in two games. August 18, our Ladycats varsity girls traveled to Silver Grove where they played the Silver Grove Trains. We won the first game 25-23 and lost the second game 21-25, but our girls came back in the third game for a win of 25-14 ending with the best two out of three matches. Contratulations to our Ladycats!

Ladycats slow start to season

While the Varsity Ladycats have started off slow, 0-3 with two goals scored, the JV Ladycats have been routing teams, winning all three games by a combined score of 16-1. Add in their scrimmage vs Harrison County and that tally jumps to 25-1.

The Varsity Cats opened their season against a tough Holy Cross squad and they proved too much for the PC, winning 5-0.

The Cats bounced back and tied Owen County 1-1 on the next day. Freshmen McKayla Manor hit a cross that found Tori Fitzpatrick in the center. She directed it into the goal for the Cats first goal of the 2011 season.

The Cats third game in three days saw them hosting Covington Latin. Latin scored often and took the 5-1 victory. McKayla was back in the middle of the scoring for the Cats. This time, she was on the receiving end of a pass from Krystalyn Hackett.

Meanwhile, JV has had a litany of players on the scoring end with seven players (Erin Fitzpatrick, Madison Wirth, Katie Boggs, Morgan Sydnor, Allison Lenox, Alex Blackaby and Kendall Carr) recording goals and two more (Allison Wolfe and Hailey Carr) having assists. They pulled out a close 2-1 victory in the opener over Holy Cross and routed both Owen County 9-0 and Latin 5-0.

Last night, the Cats hosted Campbell County but results were not available at press time. Wednesday, they travel to Bourbon County as well as to Dixie Heights on Saturday.

Cats Tee Off Season vs. Mason

The Cats played their first match of the season last night against Mason County at Laurel Oaks Golf Course, site of the 2011 regional tournament. While results were not available at press time, the opening match will give Coach Ron Stinson a good opportunity to see where his team stands. Mason County is the preseason favorite to walk away with the region team championship.

The experience of being on the course should prove beneficial to the Cats come September. Lane Weaver has plenty experience playing on it but Lance Jones will be playing for the first time on the course. Cody Kirsch, Evan Spicer, Trey Roseberry and Wyatt Hatton have some limited experience on the course.

As the Cats have worked on their swings at the practice range, Lane has looked great and will be one of the top 5 golfers in the region. Lance, Cody, Evan, Trey and Wyatt have all showed flashes of brilliance during the preseason practice.

Today, they travel to Critten-den at Eagle Creek to take on Grant County. Tomorrow, they host Simon Kenton at Pendleton Country Club and travel south to Cynthia Country Club to play Harrison County on Thursday.

Butler Festival

Left to right: Ashley Laudick, Tracy Laudick, and Erin Franke were torn between being a Lucky Duck or tossing bean bags.

Jim Fetters kept the games going with the basketball throw.

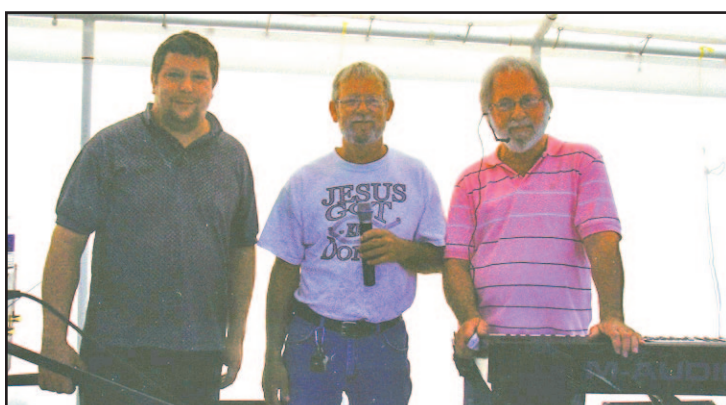

Melanie Mullins and Missy Combs were glad to help with hosting duties at the Milk Can throw booth.

Virginia Combs and Theresa Hicks were all smiles to help with the Milk Can throw booth.

Aubrey Mullins enjoyed a cold treat at the Butler Festival.

Thank you from Committee

The Butler Festival Committee would like to thank each business and community (either by gift or service) for their continued support of the Butler Festival.

Thank you for donating beautiful baskets for the silent auction (another great event).

To all the bands for playing music for the festival we thank you. (3-4-1), County Line Ramblers, Hard Times, Mr. Timmy and the Supper Table Gang, Sara and Jason Mann, Junction 177 Band, Mitch Ruth, and the Sugar Foot Cloggers.

Thanks to the churches, craft, and food booths for supporting the festival.

To all the workers of the festival we thank you so much. You are special! The Falmouth Outlook we thank you for the advertisement.

Thanks to the Boy Scouts and Leaders for trash pickup, parking, patrolling the grounds, and camping out during the festival.

Thank you and God bless. See you next year!

The Butler Festival Committee

More Sayings

By Polly Thornton

When you drop a dishrag on the floor it means you're going to love company.

Always leave a horse by the same door you came in or you will take the troubles of the house with you as you go.

Plant potatoes and all underground vegetables in the dark of the moon.

Plant beans and all above ground vegetables during the light of the moon.

Fill what's empty, empty what's full and scratch where it itches.

Many folks are itching for something they don't want to scratch for.

If cornbread splits while it's baking somebody in the family is going to die soon.

When you run across a horseshoe pick it up and spit on it and then throw it over your shoulder without looking back and you will have good luck.

If you sing before breakfast, you're going to cry before supper.

If you spill salt, before sure to throw a pinch over your left shoulder or you're going to have bad luck.

What Mother Nature gives you, Father Time will take away.

Let a black cat cross your path and you are in for bad luck.

If a black crosses your path turn around and go back the other way and you won't have bad luck.

A horseshoe nailed over the door will always keep evil spirits out of the house.

Sprinkle salt around the outside of all your doors and windows to keep evil spirits out of the house.

Sleep with your Bible under your pillow to keep bad dreams and evil away.

You are going to have some good luck if the palm of your right hand itches.

Pick up a frog and your hand will get warts.

Don't look a gift horse in the mouth.

If it wasn't for bad luck I'd have no luck at all.

If you drop a spoon a woman will visit. If you drop a form a man will visit. If you drop a knife a woman and a man will visit.

A rolling stone gathers no moss.

Don't count your chickens until all the eggs have hatched.

Birds of a feather flock together.

If you see a rainbow after a storm it means you are going to have fair weather.

Love is a shallow suitor if it's not recognized by trust and faith.

If you find a four leaf clover in your yard keep it and it will bring you good luck.

Early to bed, early to rise, and you will be healthy, wealthy, and wise.

You can lead a horse to water, but you can't make him drink.

Things are never so bad they can't get worse.

Pennies make dollars.

A penny for your thoughts.

A baker's dozen.

There is always one bad egg in the basket.

Crossfire Crew pick up trash

On April 30, 2011, 15 members of the Crossfire Crew of New Zion Baptist Church walked five miles along Highway 22 West and picked up 32 bags of trash.

Items found on this road were dirty diapers, bags of restaurant wrappers, cups, bottles, cardboard, insulation and the worst of all, was feces in a cup! Seriously? Who in their right mind would do this? The crew also found plastic pop bottles which were used to make Meth. We had to call the State Police to come and pick this up. The only good thing we came upon was a mother turkey nesting on 12 eggs. It was a blessing to see!

Citizens of Pendleton County, please do not litter! It only makes our beautiful county look trashy.

Picking up trash on Hwy 177

On Saturday, April 30, 2011, the Butler Baptist Church Wellness Ministry along with additional volunteers from the church had the opportunity to pick up trash on Highway 177. With 13 adults and two youth assisting, we were able to collect 53 bags of trash and one car tire.

The items collected for disposal ranged from bottles/cans, radar detector, syringe, plastic Easter eggs and a wooden decoy duck. It was an eye-opening experience for all who participated with everyone, especially the youth, realizing that when you throw trash out your vehicle window it does not just disappear, but it continues to have a negative effect on the environment along with those whose homes are located nearby.
